Family-Life Church to Feature Shroud of Turin Life-Size Photos on Good Friday

The Shroud of Turin is a centuries-old linen cloth that bears the image of a crucified man - a man that millions believe to be Jesus of Nazareth. Modern science has completed hundreds of thousands of hours of detailed study and intense research on the Shroud. It is, in fact, the single most studied artifact in human history.

Come and see the various aspects of the crucifixion - the nails prints in the hands and feet, lacerations of being whipped on the back, blood stains, head punctures that could have happened by a crown of thorns being pushed into the skull. Some scholars believe the Shroud was created by an enormous power surge that created an image like the negative of a photo - power that could have been created at the time of resurrection.

You are invited to come and view it for yourself through these true-to-life-size photos. Free admission. Come at your convenience throughout the day.
